This leaflet is one of three, describing Oundle for Organists 2006, with events on an extended campus around the UK. Contact us to request them all, or visit our website.

Whether you are a conservatoire student or a beginner still at primary school, we have a course for you during 2006. The tutors, selected from around the world for their skills and enthusiastic rapport with pupils, are inspirational and friendly.

Oundle for Organists aims to provide great value for money but for those who cannot afford the fees, we can often offer bursaries. Our courses are non-competitive and recital awards are offered at the July summer schools.

Premier-league tutors, wonderful organs, concerts you will never forget - transform your organ playing and make friends at Oundle!

James Parsons

Director, Oundle for Organists
